Air Force Holds Lisner. Program

by Robert Forbes and Mary Hoffman

"IT IS PROBABLY an innovation to have a Navy man direct an Air Force band," remarked Colonel George S. Howard as he introduced Navy Commander Charles E. ndler at the Air Force Concert in Lisner Auditorium last dnesday night.

· THE STUDENT COUNCIL

sponsored social program for the spring semester includes a Fashion Show on February 25 and a Colonial Cruise outing on April

Tickets for the Fashion Show at Lisner Auditorium will be on sale during registration in the basement of the Hall of Govern-ment for 75 cents, Combo holders will be admitted free.

University guests for the show will be a representative from each of the high schools and junior colleges in the city. They will receive their complimentary tickets at a tea in Lisner Lounge February 4. They will be asked to sell tickets to the show to their classmates.

Hosts Chosen

In charge of this tea are Mary Dodson and Sandy Shoemaker.
Also playing hosts at the tea will be members of Gate and Key.

A faculty skit, dancing under the stars, baseball and baby sitting services are all being discussed as part of the plans for the Colonial Cruise outing on April 23.

The Cruise will include a boat trip to Marhsall Hall, an afternoon of inter-school competition in athletics and other events, a program of entertainment and the boatride back complete with music and dancing.

The entire day of fun will be free to Combo holders. Others may purchase their tickets for $1.50.

Committee Head

Committee Heads

Co-Chairmen of the Cruise Joe
Hince and Carol Picton have already appointed committee chairmen to begin plans. Beverly Borden is in charge of entertainment;
Ed Turco will handle tickets; Lou d'Amico is in charge of facilities;
and Peggy Busick heads the publicity committee.

Faculty advisors include Dean Carr B. Lavell, Dean George M. Koehl and Professor Charles W. Cole. Mr. Vincent De Angelis and Miss Loretta M. Stallings will be advisors to the entertainment committee.

music and dancing

Commander Brendler, pres-lent of the American Band-Association and director of the Navy Band, began his portion of the program with Wagner's "Faust Overture." After playing "Ter Eulenspiegel" by Strauss, the band struck up a ltvely rendition of "Anchors Aweigh."

The program, emceed by Bari-tone Soloist Sergeant Bill Jones, began with the "Commanders March" followed by "Sons of the Eagle."

Tenor Soloist Sergeant Bill Du-Pree then sang "La Donna E Mobile" from Rigoletto and "Yours Is My Heart Alone."

The second half of the program opened with the Washington debut of Radie Britain's "Prelude to a Drama."

Bill Jones of the Singing Ser-geants provided a break in the serious instrumental portion with "My Son Bill" from "Carousel." The orchestra closed its portion of the program with the "Roumanian Rhapsody."

The Singing Sergeants conducted by Lt. Robert Landis concluded the program. They sang "Battle Hymn of the Republic," a Russian rendition of the "Volga Boatmen," the Duet from Dubois' "Seven Last Words of Christ" with Seven Last Words of Christ" with Sergeants Jones and DuPree and a medley of Stephen Foster tunes. The audience joined the Orchestra and the Singing Sergeants, led by Conductors Landis and Howard, in singing the national anthem—a fitting end to this evening of delightful music.

The concert was a part of the Colonial Program series which is sponsored each year by the Student Council.

Texts Needed By Bookstore

THE UNIVERSITY bookstore will emphasize the sale of used books this coming semester, Mrs. Harris, manager of the store amounced last week.

She requests that students turn in the books they would like sold after exams, rather than during registration.

The bookstore will then be able to process the books in time to make them available at registration and students will be able to avoid the congestion in the bookstore during the first week of achool.

Books in current use at the miversity will be accepted on onsignment or for cash. If the tudent wishes immediate cash for is book, he will get from 20 to 0 per cent of the list price, desending on the condition of the cook.

If the book is left on consignment, he will receive 50 per cent of the list price when the book is sold. These used books will then be sold for no more than 70 per cent of list price to those students lesiring them.

To ease the registratice.

The night promises to be one of galety and fair-like confusion as students mill through the fair and proceed to the Freshman Orientation Dance at the Student Union.

With Jack Thorne as the barker, a short review of each activity. will precede a period of wandering from booth to booth for those interested in joining one of the ing from booth to booth for those interested in joining one of the activities represented.

Every recognized and openmembership group on campus can be represented at the fair, and each will be spotlighted for two or three minutes. About twenty groups have already signed up and other honorary groups plan displays.

Entertainment Planned

Modern Dance will lead off with dance selections. Cheerleaders will be there en masse to cheer on the crowd, the Art Club promises something special by way of booth decoration and entertainment and the Home Economics Club will have samples on display. Also performing will be the Drama groups and representatives from the Glee Club.

Special Music
Ed Jaffee and Joe Hince, Student college representatives, promise music by a very special orchestra and invite the whole school to attend.

The idea this year is to make the Fair and the Dance all-University social events. It is hoped that many students who retrained from joining activities their first semester will now enter the activities whirl. "And we hope the old-timers will come out for the fun even if they're already in activities up to their ears," says Barbara Stuart, Director of the Fair, cards during registration, February 3 and 4. There will be a booth in the basement of the Hall of Government. The IFC will operate a booth there on the same days to sign up boys interested in fraternity rush.

Sorority rush will begin with open houses at all sororities on February 6 and will run through Friday, February 18. Any girl who wishes to pledge a sorority must have signed her registration eard by 5 p.m., Thursday, February 10.

Informal Lunches

During the first week there will be informal lunches in the scrority rooms and coke dates. The only Panhellenic Post Office of the rush period will be on Friday, February 11.

Formal fraternity rush will be a shorter period, running from February 7 to 14, and beginning with rotation parties on Monday night, February 7, night, February 7,

This first rotation night will feature open houses at Acaeis, Delfa Tau Delta, Pi Kappa Alpha, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Sigma Nu, Sigma Chi and Theta Delta Chi. Rotation parties at Alpha Epsilon Pi, Kappa Sigma, Phi Alpha, Phi Sigma Kappa, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Tau Epsilon Phi and Tau Kappa Epsilon will be on Thursday, February 10. These rotation parties will be strictly non-alcoholic.

Open House

Open houses will be held at all fraternity houses Friday and Saturday nights. Rushees wishing to ballot will be required to obtain seven signatures in all.

Balloting will take place at Woodhull House on Monday, Feb-ruary 14 from 9 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Drama Group Needs Actors

• TRYOUTS FOR THE Univer sity Players' next production, 'De-tective Story," to be given March 3 and 4, will be held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights at 7:30 in the Lisner Auditorium.

Under the direction of Ethel Casey Schreiber, well known in theatrical circles, and Ed Ferrero, the plans are taking shape rapidly.

Twenty-four boys will be needed to play the parts of the detectives, hoodlums and others found in a police station, the scene of the play. Characters include Detective McCloud, who hates criminals fanatically, the gangster Charlie, Joe the photographer and a boy who has stolen for the first time.

Girls are needed to play Mc-Cloud's wife, the boy's sister, a shoplifter and others.

During the month of April the All-University Follies, under the direction of the drama department assisted by the student board, will be the main attraction at Lisner Auditorium,

In both the March and April dramatic productions the casts are going to be extremely large. The directors hope that all interested students, regardless of the degree of experience, will come out for these productions,

Dean Turner Discusses University Requirements before New Students

• A TALK BY Dean William Turner will be the main feature of the Big Sis Mixer February 2, at 7:30, in the Big Sis Lounge of Woodhull House.

Dean Turner will address the group of new women students on the requirements of the University, the schedule of classes and the history of the school. Miss Virginia Kirkbride, Director of Activities for Women, and her assistant, Miss Jean Buckley, will be presented to the new students. Refreshments will be served and a The activities of the big sisters. Any student interested in being the property of the school of the big sisters. trio will perform.

The aim of the Big Sis or-ganization is to familiarize new women students with the Univer-sity to some extent before regis-tration actually starts. The mixer held at the beginning of each se-mester provides a chance for the big sis to meet her little sisters.

The activities of the big sisters include telephoning and writing new students before they arrive, welcoming them and offering them any advice they want.

The organization meets all year planning programs for orientation week. Any girl who has a 2.0 average is eligible for membership in this organization. Petitioning for membership will start at the Activities Fair, February 18.

Any student interested in becoming a Big Sis may obtain a petition for membership in Miss Kirkbride's office between February 18 and March 4. The petition must be filled out and returned to her office with a 50 cent fee. Petitions are voted on by the Big Sis Board which consists of the president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer and chairmen of the various committees.

nials upset SAE, 35-31, Sam Sirkis leading, the Colonials with 12 leading the Colonials with 12 markers. In the day's roughest game, the Rough Riders (Phi Alpha's B team) gave a good account of themselves before bowing 49-37 to a rugged Sigma Chi quintet. Dick Gasperi swished through 16 points for the Sigs.

16 points for the Sigs.

A powerful Phi Sigma Kappa outfit, fed by Steve Bauk and Joe King, with 22 and 17 points respectively, trounced the AEPi hoopsters, 59-30. In the following game, PiKA, paced by Joe Hince and John Keene, thwarted TEP, 36-21. Phi Alpha, which looks to be the team with the most scoring punch and depth in the intramural league, toyed with the utterly helpless Spartans to the tune of an 84-24 lacing. Howe Frushtick and Bob Goldstein combined for a total of 43 points for the H Street powerhouse. In the day's final action, the Buff and Blue spanked SAE-B, 43-19. Dave Liddick set the pace for the victors with 20 points.

Rudin's Ramblings

THERE ARE SEVERAL th THERE ARE SEVERAL things to watch for in tonight's game with Maryland. First, if either Joe Holup or Corky Devlin foul out, the Colonials are in real trouble. Of course, a Terp victory would be a slim thing if either Bob Kessler or Bob Everett of the College Parkers were to depart early. Thus, the battle will be basically among these four men.

Second, a Maryland lead of over six points late in the game can spell trouble for the Buff. The Terps play a slow possession game, and given a half dozen points, the Marylanders can run out the clock. On the other hand, if the Buff are hot, as they were against Georgetown, the Terps can not win.

There is one big advantage going for the Colonials. They will be playing on what amounts to a home floor, Uline Arena. The Buff have not tasted defeat on that floor since the last game of the 1952-1963 season. It is important to remember that the Buff tripped the Terps the last time the two teams met. The score was 70-57.

the two teams met. The score was 76-51.

The Buff have been pointing to this game for a long while, whereas the Terps have just come out of a tough tilt with North Carolina State. The pressure of Maryland's winning streak is beginning to tell. It is becoming harder and harder to keep their long string going. The Buff have more experience. Two of the College Parkers' big hopes are only sophs. These would be Frank Fuqua and Bob O'Brien. The Buff are loaded with men with two and even three years' experience on the varsity. The Buff showed this experience by copping two of three tournaments on the road. Granted that Maryland won a tourney title also, but the competition did not compare with the Buff foes.

Holup, Devlin Vie Everett, Kessler

 EVERYBODY IS TALKING about the big game tonight! Will GW—the eighth-ranked team in the nation—be able to handle the red-hot Terrapins? Gan the Colonials, on the rebound from their upset loss to Richmond, defeat the surprising Terps who are at their peak after smashing mighty North Carolina State last week? Are Corky Devlin and Joe Holup any match for the agile and smooth-shooting Bob Kessler and Bob Everett? It won't be such an easy task!

Bud Millikin has taken a young inexperienced squad, lacking depth and a top-notch scorer, and has molded one of the nation's most formidable teams. Against this will be pitted, the fast-breaking Colonials, usually sparkling but occasionally erratic; it's a G. W. team that has all the talent and press notices and will be slight favorites over Maryland until the opening whistle. Then the pressnotices, odds, and all the paper work go out the window and it becomes the fast-moving, good shooting Colonials against the ball-holding rebounding Terrapins with about anything liable to happen and the winner anybody's shrewd guess.

Riding High

Riding high on the crest Riding high on the crest of a nine game winning streak, Mary-land has out-rebounded practically every team it has faced this season! So has G. W. The Terps have the high-scoring Kessler and Everett who are also the top rebounders on the team; the Colonials have Devlin and Holup who are averaging /22 and 23 points each and along with Joe Petcavitch and Jay Manning are doing a fine job on the boards. There's 6-7 Frank Fuqua and Bob O'Brian who sparkled against North Carowho sparkled against North Carolina State, Drew Schauffer, Tom Young and Mark Vodopia to name a few of the Terrapin standouts. For G. W. it's Ciriello and Klein, Manning and Petcavitch. The Colonials can shoot better; the Colonials can snoot better; the Terps have a superior defensive squad. It's a toss-up off the boards and little difference in bench strength. The Buff can run and display a fast-breaking, fast-shooting offense; Maryland plays a possession type game, holding a possession type game, holding on to the ball and shooting only if the openings are good ne openings are good.

of Tom Brown during the semester.

President Marvin gave an inspiring talk on the place of the University in modern society.

Tracing the history of Western thought and development he emphasized the need for thinking minds in society.

Dr. Marvin also talked of our great material advancement, of the empty satisfaction it is prone to bring and thus predicted a new revival of spiritual values in the future.

He commended the great strides that have been made in society at large and particularly in universities in the elimination of race and class barriers.

He closed with a charge to the Council members to remember always their heritage.

break for the Colonials. This is Corky Devlin's favorite scoring ground and you can look for him to be there tonight. Joe Holup always comes up with a fine game at Uline, usually shining under the boards besides dumping in his share of the point total.

Except for the upset loss to Richmond last week, G. W. has played good ball most of the year. Their upset of second-ranked Duquense and victory in the Steel Bowl and Richmond Tournaments have earned them a national ranking of ninth last week and they have been as high as sixth. Last year the Colonials were also a top team in the nation, and one of their losses was to the Terps.
